

The logo for HH Architecture features a series of vertical yellow lines of varying heights above a dark brown rectangular box containing the text "HH ARCHITECTURE" in yellow. Below the box is another series of vertical yellow lines, mirroring the top one.

HH ARCHITECTURE

HH Architecture Promotes Staff

Firm Builds Internal Capabilities and Expands Design Team

July 21, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RALEIGH, N.C. – HH Architecture, a full service design firm based in Raleigh, N.C., has promoted Andrea Frysinger to Design Administrator. Ms. Frysinger will provide operational and design support for a growing staff.

“Since she started at the firm, Andrea has played a critical role helping us expand our in-house capabilities, and we are pleased to offer her an opportunity to advance,” said Kristen Hess, Principal at HH Architecture. “Her engineering background has been a tremendous asset to our clients and staff.”

Ms. Frysinger earned a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from North Carolina State University. She is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). Prior to joining HH Architecture, Ms. Frysinger’s diverse experience included civil engineering, GIS, and landscape architecture support on residential and commercial projects.

HH Architecture was recently presented the Pinnacle Award for Steady Growth and Profitability by the Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce. Current projects include the academic redevelopment at Fayetteville Technical Community College, renovations at Spencer Hall at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and renovation work at Wake Technical Community College.

About HH Architecture:

HH Architecture is a design firm focused on creating spaces that promote learning, wellness, and recreation. We are committed to improving the community through conscientious, responsible design. We are accredited professionals in Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) and have extensive experience with design that minimizes waste and uses resources wisely. Visit www.hh-arch.com.

###